

Postponement Request Form

Complete this form if you are experiencing financial difficulties which prevent you from making the required payments on your loan(s). Postponement is granted by the lenders/loan owner's discretion. Postponement is provided as an alternative to regular monthly payments, and this has a maximum number of months postponement is allowed for the life of the loan. If your account is delinquent, the postponement can be used retroactively to cover the period of delinquency and will count towards the maximum months of postponement allowed.

- 3 months

We can postpone your loan for up to 3 months at a time. Please complete a new request if you still need assistance at the end of the months selected. A loan that is greater than 90 days past due cannot be brought current with this form. Making payments during this postponement can reduce the interest you pay over the life of the loan. Additional documentation outside this form may be required to process this request.
